The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C §102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this action.

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless -

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

Claims 1-2 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. §102(b) as being anticipated by Sejbal (Collect Czech Chem Commun. 61, 1371, 1996).

Sejbal discloses (page 1375) structure 10, which is dimethyl ether betuline. This is identical to the compound claimed in instant claim 2, and falls within the scope of claim 1 for the case of "R" representing methyl.

Thus, the claims are anticipated.
